

COMMUNITY HUMAN VALUES FEST

EXHIBITION GUIDELINES

About this Event

Human Values Fest is a family-centric festival celebrating five universal human values inherent in all of us: Love, Truth, Right Action, Peace and Non-Violence. The festival is hosted by the Institute of Sathya Sai Education – USA, with support from local schools and various community partners. It aims at expanding positivity, noble human qualities, sound character and the practice selfless service in our communities, while tapping into the natural goodness and creativity that exists in all children.

The festival and exhibition entries are absolutely FREE to all and dedicated with love to our community. Participants may submit individual; family or group works (of any size) for the exhibition. To participate, please read below or contact us at: www.humanvaluesfest.org
